vs.)
)	ORDER ON VIOLATION OF
)	CONDITIONS OF PROBATION
ALECIA D. GAYLES,)
DEFENDANT.)

A violation report was filed in this case on April 18, 2019. The Court referred this matter to Magistrate Judge George J. Limbert to conduct appropriate proceedings and to file a Report and Recommendation. The Magistrate Judge reported that a probation violation hearing was held on May 6, 2019, wherein the defendant admitted to the following violations:

1. Unauthorized Use of Drugs
2. Unauthorized Use of Drugs
3. Failure to Pay Restitution as Ordered
4. Failure to Work Toward GED

The Magistrate Judge filed a Report and Recommendation on May 6, 2019, in which the Magistrate Judge recommended that the Court find that the defendant has violated the conditions of her probation.

A Final Probation Violation Hearing was conducted on August 14, 2019. Defendant Alecia D. Gayles was present and represented by Attorney John W. Greven. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Damoun Delaviz. United States Probation Officer Luke Filippi was also present at the hearing.

No objections were filed to the report and recommendation of the Magistrate Judge.

Upon review, the Court adopts the report and recommendation of Magistrate Judge Limbert and finds the defendant to be in violation of her terms and conditions of her probation.

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant's probation be extended for a period of one year under the same terms and conditions as previously imposed. Defendant was also admonished for her violations, instructed to have no further infractions and to fully comply with the terms and conditions of her probation.

Additionally, the court ordered if defendant's work hours are 30 hours per week the condition regarding GED shall be suspended. If her hours fall below 30 hours per week, she must work towards obtaining her GED. Defendant is advised that any further violations may result in revocation of probation and imposition of an appropriate prison term.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 14, 2019
